There is an additional fee for taking liquor aboard the coach, and coach parking fees are paid for by the group.

The Dept. of Transportation has mandated the use of Electronic Logs. The rules for driving are the same. One driver can be on duty for 15 hours and drive for 10 of those hours. After that, a driver must have 8 continuous hours off. All timing is now done by engine electronics and GPS.

If your trip needs more time than that, you will have to change your itinerary or pay for a second driver. This must be determined in advance of the trip. Once the trip has started and the driver runs out of hours, you will be responsible for the passengers until the driver has return to duty status. This is why we need a detailed timed itinerary for both overnight and day trips before we give a quote.

Policies

Cheeseman Coaches Inc. prides itself on providing a clean, safe coach at all times. To maintain that high standard, we ask the customers to abide by these rules:

Food and Non-alcoholic Drink Policy

No dairy products of any kind are allowed on the coaches. This includes milk, milkshakes, ice cream, cappuccino drinks with whipped cream, milk, etc. Other food and drinks are allowed as long as the coaches are kept clean. At no time can liquids be put in overhead compartments. They may leak and get into VCR, DVD or other electronics and cause malfunctions. If cleanliness becomes a problem, the chartering party may be billed for a cleaning fee and/or this privilege may be revoked. No glass bottles on the coach at any time.

Liquor Policy

There is a $150.00 extra charge for liquor on the coach. No glass bottles or kegs are allowed on the coach at any time. No Styrofoam coolers or coolers over 36 inches long. Cheeseman Coaches drivers have the right to check coolers for glass bottles. If glass is found in the cooler, the whole cooler goes beneath the coach, no questions asked. If someone brings alcohol on the coach and the chartering party has not paid the extra liquor charge, it is their (chartering party) responsibility to get it off the coach or be billed the extra charge.

Cheeseman Coaches, Inc. reserves the right to refuse transport of persons under the influence of drugs or liquor. It is the responsibility of the chartering party to control minor drinking.

Cancellation Policy

If we have a signed contract from you and you cancel the trip, there will be a $ 35.00 cancellation fee.

Important!!

Any and all damage done to the coaches by the chartering party will be billed to the chartering party. Chartering groups must provide adequate supervision and discipline.

If something should get spilled, please inform the driver immediately so it can be cleaned up. Please put all cans and trash in waste cans which are provided to keep the coach looking nice at all times.

There is no smoking on coaches at any time. This is a Federal Law.

Thank you,

Cheeseman Coaches, Inc.
